

N

Neck roll noun Circular movement that makes it appear that the head, vertical and motionless, is on a swivel that is connected to the torso.

Nickel noun 1. Specific term of a prison sentence served. 2. Quantity or size of a small bag of drugs or narcotics. 3. Coin denomination.

No, he didn't! noun Negative reaction to another person's response or action, feeling that he/she should know better, and for which there are consequences.

No shame in my game noun No matter what you or others think of me or what I do, I have no regrets and need make no apologies, and, in fact, I feel good about myself.

Not that kind of party noun Recognition, upon arrival and from quick surveillance, that what's about to go down is not quite what you expected, and it's best to leave.

O

O.G. noun 1. Old timers from way back who were granted much respect due to their reputations of fear, violence, threats, and coercion. 2. Our moms.

Okey-doke noun Nonsense, B.S., dumb stuff, scams, bait & switch, cons, lies, cheating, or fake news that you certainly will not fall for.

On the ones and twos noun 1. The primary electronic equipment used by a deejay at the club, a party, or Def Comedy Jam. 2. The first rounds when playing Jacks.