

122. Guess Who's Coming To Dinner (1967)

"Well, it's my fault. See, we have a sort of a situation here. Joanna and I didn't just meet in Hawaii. We spent a good deal of time together, I mean, all the time after we met, and, well, we have this problem. I fell in love with your daughter... And, as incredible as it may seem, she fell in love with me. And, we flew back to San Francisco to see if you or Mrs. Drayton would have any objections if we got married." (Sidney Poitier)
